

Protecting Children from Online Predators Tips & Tools for Parents

Monday, April 11, 2005

6-9 p.m.

(6 p.m., vendors and booths; 7 p.m. program begins)

Southampton High School Auditorium

141 Narrow Lane, Southampton

Parry Aftab World-renowned Internet safety expert on cyber-bullying, cyber-crime and online sexual exploitation of children; attorney, child advocate, author

Dana Brown Assistant District Attorney for Suffolk County in the Child Abuse & Domestic Violence Bureau

Det. Rory Forrestal Suffolk County Police Department Computer Crimes Bureau

Sponsored by Congressman Tim Bishop

Learn from experts how to monitor your child's computer use at home to protect against inappropriate web sites, chat rooms and instant messages, Internet child stalkers and exposure to violence, pornography and unsolicited advances. Practical hands-on information along with booths, "how-to" displays on the latest software and take-home reference materials will be provided.

No Charge for Admission

For more information, call Congressman Bishop's Office, 631-696-6500